

For this revised draft, I needed to remove any hyperlinks from the document and I also needed to keep the cover letter to one page with no overlap. For the resume, I needed to focus on formating and making sure that my address was in the correct place, which is now fixed. I needed to fix a couple of GSP errors and inconsistencies in formatting. Other than that, this was a pretty well off document with little errors to resolve.